F&C Investment Trust 2022 Results

Investment risk

The value of investments is dependent on the supply and demand for the shares of the Investment Trust rather than its underlying assets. The value of your investment will not be the same as the value of the Investment Trust's underlying assets.

Gearing is used for investment purposes to obtain, increase or reduce exposure to an asset, index or investment. The use of gearing can enhance returns to investors in a rising market, but if the market falls the losses may be greater.

Performance in 2022

- Weak equity markets in response to higher inflation and interest rates, leading to lower market multiples
- NAV total return of -5.3%, ahead of the 7.7% loss from the FTSE All World. Investment portfolio returned -7.9%
- Private equity delivered total returns of 3.6%, well ahead of listed equity returns. We continue to enjoy long term excess returns over public markets
- All main geographic regions on our listed portfolio lost value over year with Europe (-7.2%) and Global Strategies (-7.3%) the best performing areas. North America lost 9.2% in the year while Japan (-13.5%) and Emerging Markets (-13.8%) lagged in absolute terms
- Our Global Strategies slightly outperformed benchmark while North American exposure was in line. Europe, Japan and Emerging Markets exposure lagged benchmark returns
- Performance within Global Strategies ranged from 3.0% (Pyrford Quality Income) to -13.8% (Sustainable Opportunities). Global Income produced relatively good returns, though still declined by 2.5%.
- 'Value' again led 'growth' over the period, with Barrow Hanley exceeding both the market and value index, with a return of 8.4%, while T Rowe Price delivered weak returns against growth comparators, at -29.6%. The CT US Core strategy produced outperformance with a return of -5.8%

Summary

- Inflation has peaked but more persistent in the US than Europe
- Market interest rate expectations appear plausible
- Still high risk of US recession in 2023
- Prospect of a significant secular shift in the backdrop for financial assets
- Speculative excess has normalised but 'growth' equities are only back in historic ranges
- Earnings expectations remain too optimistic
- Better value outside of US equities for long term investors
- Gearing cut, more in value and income stocks (from mid 2020), divested from small caps
- We expect good opportunities in public and private markets for re-entry in coming months
