IMPORTANT NOTE:

- Threadneedle (Lux) – Emerging Market Corporate Bonds (the “Fund”) principally invests in U.S. Dollar-denominated or US Dollar hedged investment grade and noninvestment grade debt and other obligations issued or guaranteed by institutions and corporations having their head office in, or conducting a significant part of their business in, Emerging Markets Countries.
- In respect of dividend paying share classes, distributions may at the discretion of the Directors be paid out of capital or effectively out of capital (i.e. paying dividends out of gross income while charging all or part of their fees and expenses out of capital) of the share classes. Any such distributions may result in an immediate reduction of the net asset value per share.
- Investors should note that bonds and other debt instruments, in particular those rated below investment grade, are exposed to higher credit risks of the issuer. In the event that any issuer of bonds or other debt instruments experiences financial or economic difficulties, the value of the investment may be adversely affected and may become zero.
- Investors should be aware that, due to political and economic situations in emerging countries, investment in the Fund presents greater risk and is intended only for investors who are able to bear and assume this increased risk.
- The investment decision is yours but you should not invest unless the intermediary which sells you the Fund has advised you that the Fund is suitable for you and has explained why, including how investment in the Fund will be consistent with your investment objectives.
- Investors should not base their investment decision on this document alone and must refer to the Prospectus of each Fund prior to investing.

Investment Objective & Policy

The Fund aims to provide income with the potential to grow the amount you invested over the medium to long term. The Fund invests at least two-thirds of its assets in investment grade or below investment grade bonds (which are similar to a loan and pay a fixed or variable interest rate) issued or guaranteed by companies in emerging markets or companies that have significant operations there. Bonds rated as below investment grade have received lower ratings from international agencies that provide such ratings and are considered riskier than higher rated bonds but typically pay a higher income. Emerging market investments are typically more volatile and present higher risk than investments in more established markets. Investors should consider this extra risk when evaluating the potential benefits of investing in this Fund. The Fund invests directly in these assets or may seek to gain exposure to these assets indirectly by using derivatives. Derivatives are sophisticated investment instruments linked to the rise and fall of the value of other assets. The Fund may also use derivatives for hedging purposes or to manage the Fund more efficiently. Derivatives may create leverage (market exposure in excess of the net asset value of the Fund). Up to 10% of the Fund's assets may be invested in bonds traded on the China Interbank Bond Market using Bond Connect. The Fund may also invest in asset classes and instruments different from those stated above. The Fund is actively managed in reference to the J.P. Morgan CEMBI Broad Diversified Index. The index is broadly representative of the securities in which the Fund invests, and provides a suitable target benchmark against which Fund performance will be measured and evaluated over time. The fund manager has discretion to select investments with weightings different to the index, and that are not in the index, and the Fund may display significant divergence from the index.

Past performance is not a guide to future performance. The performance data does not take account of the commissions and costs incurred on the issue and redemption of units. The value of investments and any income is not guaranteed and can go down as well as up and may be affected by exchange rate fluctuations. This means that an investor may not get back the amount invested. Index returns assume reinvestment of dividends and capital gains and unlike fund returns do not reflect fees or expenses. The index is unmanaged and cannot be invested directly. All returns assume income is reinvested for a local taxpayer, bid to bid performance (which means performance does not include the effect of any initial charges). The Share Class currency, unless indicated as a Hedged Share Class, is a translated price using exchange rates at the official valuation point of the fund. This is intended as a way to access a Share Class in your chosen currency and does not reduce your overall exposure to foreign currency. The fund currency indicates the highest currency exposure of the fund unless the currency breakdown is detailed in the Weightings % table on page 2.
